VOCO® | Oxford Thames

AN IHG HOTEL

Introduction

With a history dating back to the middle ages, the hotel's surroundings have an intriguing story to tell. Originally headquarters of the Knights Templar, the house and its lands have been owned by notable religious figures, lords, and even kings throughout the centuries. Just a short drive from the heart of Oxford, on the banks of the River Thames, in the village of Sandford-on-Thames, you'll discover voco® Oxford Thames.

This medieval manor and barn combines rustic charm with modern comfort to create a wedding destination like no other. All set against 30 acres of grounds, your Oxford wedding venue awaits.

If you choose to hold your ceremony outside, we are required to provide a backup option should the weather not be on our side. Both spaces will need to be confirmed with the registrar's office. It is the responsibility of the couple to book and pay the registrars directly if booking a ceremony at the hotel. We are very happy to hold Celebrant led Ceremony's if you wish to create a more bespoke ceremony and give yourself complete creative freedom.
